The Lodge at Doonbeg - Ireland

The Lodge has an unsurpassed reputation for providing guests with luxury accommodation at one of the most renowned five star hotels in Ireland. With every small detail carefully considered, the standard of accommodation at Doonbeg is unprecedented, offering a distinct departure from generic hotel offerings and raising a new benchmark for the discerning guest.

Accommodations are designed with golfers in mind. You can choose from your own guest room or suite, but the configurations we really like are the four bedroom ocean view suites.

Here, every golfer in a four ball has his or her own luxury bedroom and en-suite – but all the rooms join onto a shared lounge overlooking the Atlantic – which provides the perfect setting to discuss your day on the links over an Irish single malt.

Darby's is the ultimate hotel bar. With views across the 18th green and out to the Atlantic, it encapsulates the prevalent style of the Lodge – a relaxed, warm Irish ambience mixed with New England panache. An excellent venue to set up the following day's golf or simply relax and watch the game on the large screen.

Hotel Features

These luxurious self catering cottages have been constructed to the highest standards, with French limestone used for flooring and marble lining the bathrooms, and all have epic views across the club's fairways or local farmland, views which reflect Trump International Hotel & Golf Links' status as one of the most scenic five-star hotels in Ireland. The luxury cottages vary in size from 1,100 to 2,800 square feet.

Doonbeg - Ireland

Officially opened in 2002 and designed by two time British Open Champion Greg Norman, this world renowned 18 hole championship links course spans 1.5 miles of crescent shaped beach and century old sand dunes along Doughmore Bay.

Playing 6,885 yards from the back tees, this par-72 layout features a single loop of nine holes out and nine back with a unique combination of five par 3's and five par 5's.

Ballybunion, Old Course - Ireland

Located alongside the Atlantic Ocean, Ballybunion has two traditional links courses, the most challenging being the Old Course ... a supreme test of golf. Tom Watson's favourite Irish course and a golfing experience to savour for both the handicap golfer and the aficionado ... when the wind gets up, hit it low!

Waterville - Ireland

Golf at Waterville is a mystical experience – the beauty of classic links land, surrounded by the sea, yet forever challenged and shaped by the elements. Over 100 years old, Waterville is rated among the top 5 courses in Ireland and the top 20 links courses in the world.

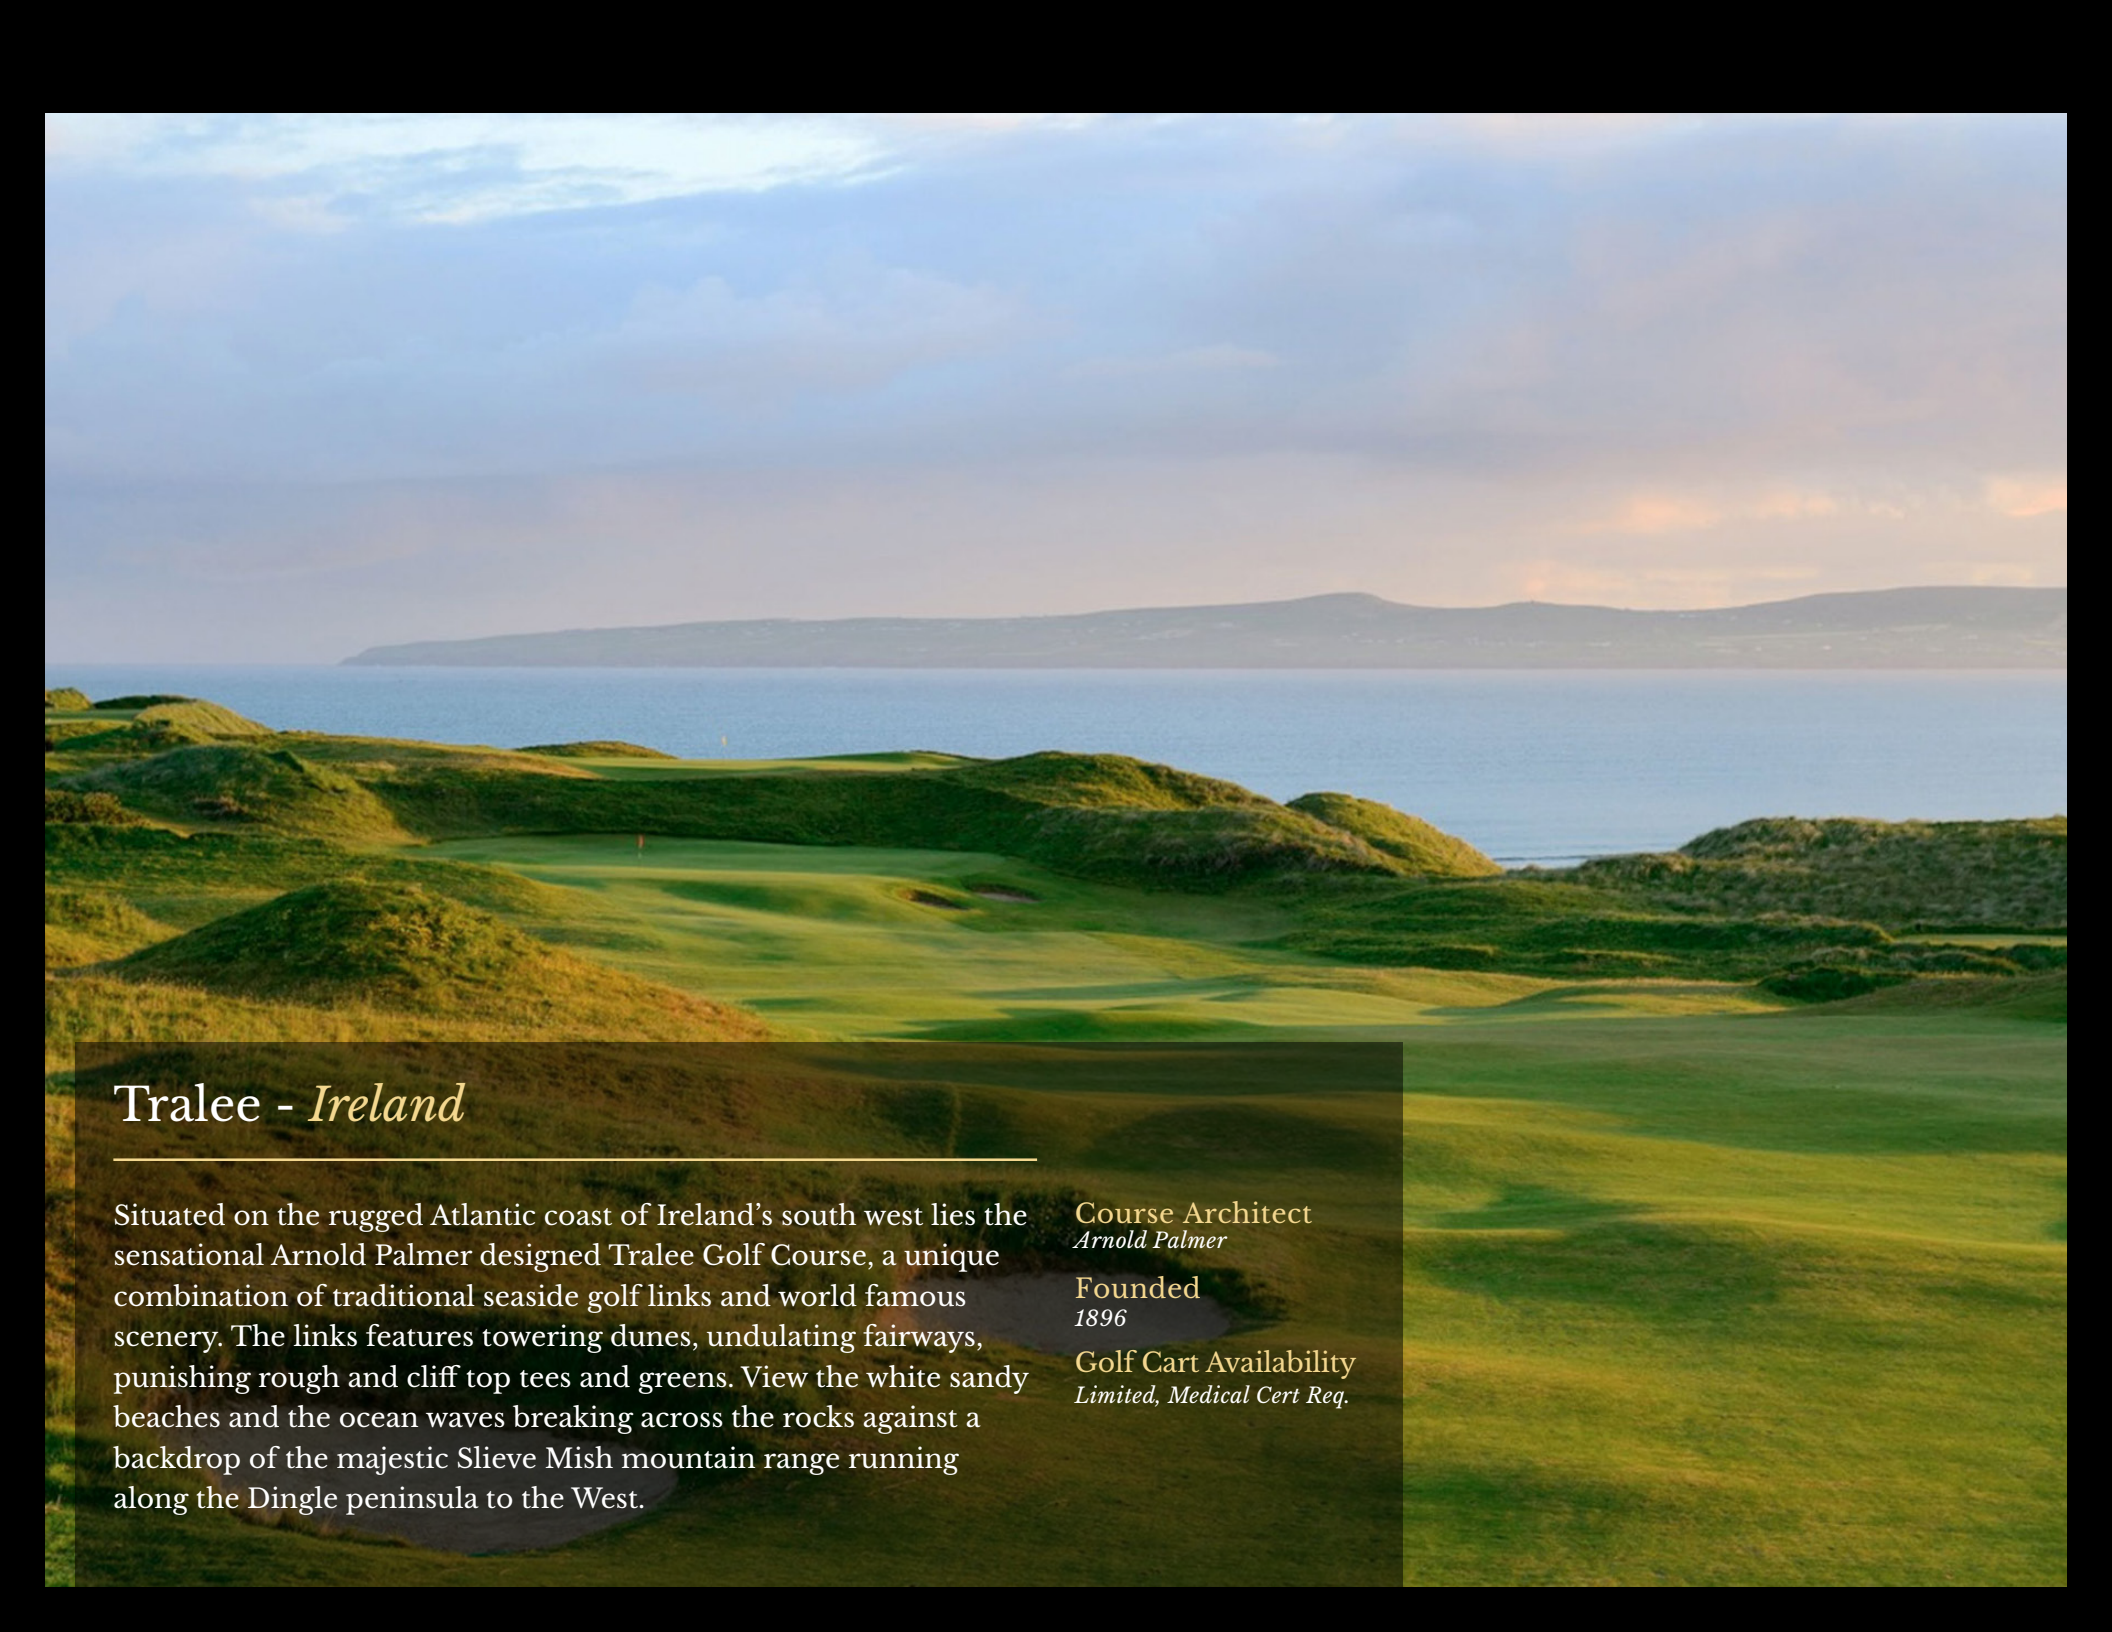

Links golf combines sand dunes gorse and native grasses, firm fairways, sod faced bunkers and subtle putting surfaces all intertwined by the ever changing weather.

Tralee - Ireland

Situated on the rugged Atlantic coast of Ireland's south west lies the sensational Arnold Palmer designed Tralee Golf Course, a unique combination of traditional seaside golf links and world famous scenery. The links features towering dunes, undulating fairways, punishing rough and cliff top tees and greens. View the white sandy beaches and the ocean waves breaking across the rocks against a backdrop of the majestic Slieve Mish mountain range running along the Dingle peninsula to the West.

Old Head Golf Club - Ireland

Old Head Golf Links is built on a 220-acre diamond of land, jutting out over two miles into the Atlantic Ocean. The promontory is almost an island with numerous caves running beneath your feet as you play the course. The links and practice area occupy 180 acres and the remaining 40 acres of unspoilt cliff (rising in places to over 300 feet) frame the course. Nine holes play along the cliff tops, and all eighteen holes provide stunning ocean views. With the ever-changing sea breezes, the course provides a stern test to the touring pro and the high handicapper alike.

Cliffs of Moher

The Cliffs of Moher are located at the southwestern edge of the Burren region in County Clare, Ireland. They rise 120 metres above the Atlantic Ocean with spectacular views.

The cliffs rank amongst the top visited tourist sites in Ireland, and receive almost one million visitors a year.

Blarney Castle/Stone

The Blarney Stone is a block of carboniferous limestone built into the battlements of Blarney Castle, Blarney, about 8 kilometres from Cork, Ireland. According to legend, kissing the stone endows the kisser with the gift of the gab (great eloquence or skill at flattery).

Ring of Kerry

The Ring of Kerry is a 179-km-long circular tourist route in County Kerry, south-western Ireland. Popular points include Muckross House (near Killarney), Staigue stone fort and Derrynane House. There is so much more to see on this route.
