Druids Glen - Ireland

Known as “The Augusta of Europe.” Just a year after opening, Druids Glen hosted the Irish Open for four years in a row. Colin Montgomerie won two years running, followed by David Carter and Sergio Garcia, shooting a 64 in the final round. When you play at Druids Glen, you’re playing one of the finest, most challenging, and most enjoyable golf courses in Europe.

Royal Dublin Golf Club - Ireland

Dating back to 1885, The Royal Dublin Golf Club is the second oldest in Ireland. The original course was situated in Phoenix Park to the west of the city, but in 1889 the club moved to its present home on Bull Island.

This fine and testing links course, host to many Irish Opens in the past, will delight golfers and the hospitality of the club is second to none.

Portmarnock - Ireland

This fine championship layout has hosted 12 Irish Opens, the Canada Cup (now the World Cup), and the Walker Cup to name but a few. Ranked no.1 on many occasions it is the finest example of links golf. With springy, undulating fairways, fast greens and the challenge of the Irish Sea breezes and stronger, this truly is a golfing treat. It has been ranked no.1 in the British Isles and Ireland on numerous occasions by Golf World Magazine.

The European Golf Club - Ireland

The European Club, as the name suggests, is designed to be a major links. The course features 20 holes, with two extra holes in play most days, of exciting links golf through tumbling dunes with dramatic views of the Irish Sea from no fewer than 16 of the holes. Some of the holes play along the beach offering breathtaking views. The European Club is a wonderful golfing test and most sort after by visiting amateurs and pros from the US and Europe. It is a great credit to its designer and owner Pat Ruddy.

The Island Club - Ireland

The Island Golf Club was among the first twelve Golf Clubs to be founded in Ireland. The natural origin of the land which forms the Island Golf Club was a gift of nature laid down on a spur of gravel in glacial times. Few people know about The Island Golf Club, despite the fact that the course is over one hundred years old and has featured in numerous ranking tables over the years. One leading UK golf magazine once commented: "The best course in Ireland you have never heard of. Play it and tell no-one."

Testimonials

What people have said about us

"I want to extend my special thanks to you and your team for the wonderful job you did hosting our Ireland trip this past week.

My members and I were blown away by the enthusiasm and relentless attention to detail you all displayed throughout the week.

This golf trip to Ireland made a lasting impression on us all! We greatly appreciate all your efforts and look forward to planning another golf trip with Signature Golf for next year!

Sean Donoghue
PGA Professional, The Moorings Club, Naples, FL

First of all, my members and I thank you and the entire group at Signature Golf for a great experience in Scotland! The Military Tattoo was quite the show to end our 8 day adventure.

You should be extremely proud of yourselves; As a team you were better than I had hoped in handling every little issue that arose during the trip. Peter our host was nothing short of amazing throughout.

We made changes along the way and I know that can never be easy, but you and your group provided great service. All in all, I believe you all delivered with a great experience for my membership and look forward to traveling with you and Signature Golf for many years to come.
