Slieve Donard - Ireland

The imposing red victorian hotel overlooking Royal County Down is almost as iconic as the golf course itself. The Slieve Donard boasts 178 luxurious bedrooms and a world-leading ESPA Spa. There are four beautiful individually named suites, but for larger groups we highly recommend the resort style rooms. These are extremely spacious and look out over golfing heaven – Royal County Down Golf Club.

From the sophisticated sumptuousness of the Oak Restaurant to the Lighthouse Lounge serving fresh and healthy options like smoothies, salads and sandwiches to a perfect pint by the fireside in the Percy French, your appetite and expectations will be well and truly satisfied. The best thing about The Slieve Donard is its proximity to the course. A mere two minutes walk and you are on the 1st tee of the No.3 ranked golf course in the world.

Large windows with patterned curtains are visible on the right side of the room. The room has a classic, elegant feel with white walls and a high ceiling.

Royal County Down - Ireland

Royal County Down is located in one of the world's most naturally beautiful links settings in the Murlough Nature Reserve. Against the magnificent backdrop of the Mountains of Mourne, the links stretches along the shores of Dundrum Bay, zigzagging back and forth to provide a different vista from virtually every hole. The greens are fast and many are domed, rejecting any shot lacking conviction.

Royal Portrush, Dunluce - Ireland

The only club in Ireland to have hosted The Open Championship, Royal Portrush is a members' club which welcomes visitors all year round to face the challenges of its courses and to brave the testing conditions. Voted Number 12 in the world by Golf Magazine, it is a masterpiece of golf course architecture.

Portstewart Golf Club - Northern Ireland

Portstewart is an Irish gem. The Old Course is stunning, playing through towering dunes and fabulous, natural links land.

Portstewart has played host to many major Amateur and Professional Championships over the years including most recently The Amateur Championship in 2014, won by Bradley Neil of Scotland.

Castlerock Golf Club - Northern Ireland

Castlerock Golf Club, is a classic links course set amid towering dunes. Situated on the Causeway coast and only a 20 minute drive from both Royal Portrush Golf Club and Portstewart Golf Club, Castlerock is a more than worthy neighbour to both of these great Irish links.

A round at Castlerock will test every department of your game. Great courses offer great closing holes and the short par four 18th at Castlerock is no different. Even with a good drive on this slight dogleg, due to the contours of the fairway, you are often left with a relatively blind approach to a tricky plateau green.

Ardglass Golf Club - Northern Ireland

Ardglass Golf Course is an 18 hole links course on the North-Eastern coast of Ireland with many stunning views and excellent unique golf holes.

The course is a true test of golf, particularly on a windy day. The course hugs the coast, with no fewer than 8 holes where the Irish Sea coastline comes into play. The Irish Sea is visible from all 18 tees and greens and on a clear day it is possible to see across the Irish Sea to the Isle of Man.

Portmarnock - Ireland

This fine championship layout has hosted 12 Irish Opens, the Canada Cup (now the World Cup), and the Walker Cup to name but a few. Ranked no.1 on many occasions it is the finest example of links golf. With springy, undulating fairways, fast greens and the challenge of the Irish Sea breezes and stronger, this truly is a golfing treat. It has been ranked no.1 in the British Isles and Ireland on numerous occasions by Golf World Magazine.
